TRUFFLE HILL CHARDONNAY 2014

Winemaker's Tasting Notes: No butter, no vanilla, but maybe just a bit of cream... what chardonnay tastes like when it lets its hair down. Flinty with Golden apples, baked pears, spice and fig on a refreshing frame, sur lie aged for just 9 months.

Food Pairing: Truffle Hill Chardonnay is delicious with French country dishes. The flavors in this wine make you wish for Paté and a hunk of crusty Bread, some rich creamy Cheese and perhaps a slice of Farmstead Quiche. Try with Potted Salmon Rillettes, Crab Cakes and a salad of Pears, Walnuts and Oregon Rogue Creamery Blue Cheese.
