

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93 Left Coast Estate Latitude 45° Pinot Noir Willamette Valley, Oregon Editor's Choice

This is a reserve-level barrel selection from the oldest estate vineyard. In this excellent vintage, it's a superstar—firm, dense and supple, loaded with black fruits and highlights of cola. There's a light hint of peat moss and a dusting of spice. The wine knits together beautifully and should drink very well over the next half decade or longer. - PAUL GREGUTT
