

vinous

January 2018

92 Left Coast Estate Latitude 45° Pinot Noir Willamette Valley, Oregon

(75% new French Oak) Deep Red, Ripe red berries, cola, vanilla and allspice on the deeply perfumed nose. In a generous style but in no way ponderous, offering appealingly sweet black raspberry, cherry and spicecake flavors that are given lift and spine by a core of juicy acidity. A subtle mineral nuance appears on the very long, gentle tannic, smoky finish, which leaves behind raspberry liqueur and mocha notes. - Josh Raynolds

abv: 13.8%

SRP: $42

vinous

January 2018

92 Left Coast Estate Latitude 45° Pinot Noir Willamette Valley, Oregon

(75% new French Oak) Deep Red, Ripe red berries, cola, vanilla and allspice on the deeply perfumed nose. In a generous style but in no way ponderous, offering appealingly sweet black raspberry, cherry and spicecake flavors that are given lift and spine by a core of juicy acidity. A subtle mineral nuance appears on the very long, gentle tannic, smoky finish, which leaves behind raspberry liqueur and mocha notes. - Josh Raynolds

abv: 13.8%

SRP: $42

vinous

January 2018

92 Left Coast Estate Latitude 45° Pinot Noir Willamette Valley, Oregon

(75% new French Oak) Deep Red, Ripe red berries, cola, vanilla and allspice on the deeply perfumed nose. In a generous style but in no way ponderous, offering appealingly sweet black raspberry, cherry and spicecake flavors that are given lift and spine by a core of juicy acidity. A subtle mineral nuance appears on the very long, gentle tannic, smoky finish, which leaves behind raspberry liqueur and mocha notes. - Josh Raynolds

abv: 13.8%

SRP: $42

vinous

January 2018

92 Left Coast Estate Latitude 45° Pinot Noir Willamette Valley, Oregon

(75% new French Oak) Deep Red, Ripe red berries, cola, vanilla and allspice on the deeply perfumed nose. In a generous style but in no way ponderous, offering appealingly sweet black raspberry, cherry and spicecake flavors that are given lift and spine by a core of juicy acidity. A subtle mineral nuance appears on the very long, gentle tannic, smoky finish, which leaves behind raspberry liqueur and mocha notes. - Josh Raynolds

abv: 13.8%

SRP: $42